

Directions

Directions to The National Botanic Garden of Wales West Entrance

From the west, Pembroke/Carmarthen

On the A48 towards Swansea and the M4, take the slip road sign posted National Botanic Garden of Wales. Proceed to the first roundabout and take the first exit left, following the instructions below.

From the east, Swansea/Cardiff

Take the M4 west towards Carmarthen, remain on the A48, and take the slip road sign posted National Botanic Garden of Wales. Take the left turn at the T-junction, then follow the instructions below.

1. Follow this road for half a mile until the main roundabout and visitor entrance; take the first left at this roundabout.
2. Continue on this road then take the first right hand turning for Llanarthne. Follow this road and at the top of hill take a sharp right, where you will see the National Botanic Garden of Wales West Entrance.
3. Drive close to the gate and press the intercom button on the control panel, speak to reception to open the gate.
4. Parking at Principality House is to the left hand side on the hill adjacent to Principality House.

